

CHRIS FLEMING – GHOST HUNTER

Chris Fleming spent his childhood growing up in a haunted house. Since the time he could walk and talk, he has seen, felt, and communicated with ghosts and spirits. Many times with family and friends. While many of his experiences were terrifying, there were some that were very spiritual in nature. These personal and collective experiences gave him insight and the drive to better understand who we truly are and search for better ways to communicate between our world and theirs.

With over 40 years of experiences with ghosts and strange phenomena, he has spoken on numerous radio and TV shows all over the world, including "Coast to Coast AM", "Larry King Live", "Inside Edition", "Showbiz Tonight", "Sirius Radio", and "Fox News" sharing and discussing his knowledge on the supernatural. In the 90's Chris published his own magazine, "Unknown Magazine" that dealt with his first had "paranormal" experiences from around the world and helped establish his name in the paranormal community. He also had a radio show called "Unknown Magazine Hour".

He is best known for his appearances on two seasons of A&E's "Psychic Kids" and the co-host of the international show "Dead Famous: Ghostly Encounters" that ran three seasons on BIO channel in the USA and in 22 countries around the world. You may have seen his ground breaking guest appearances on Travel Channels "Ghost Adventures Live" introducing the world famous "SB-7 Spirit Box " (which he helped co-create) and on SyFy's "Ghost Hunters" where he introduced the K-II meter and another device that showed how ghosts can communicate through the EMF field. Since then he has appeared on numerous paranormal programs such as Animal Planets "The Haunted" and two episodes of Travel Channels "Paranormal Challenge". His passionate style of investigating has helped open the doors for psychics and mediums to investigate side by side with paranormal investigators while using scientific equipment to support and verify their claims, creating more credibility and greater assistance to finding answers to proving ghosts exist.

In 2009, he received IPAA (International Paranormal Acknowledgment Awards) Awards for Best Spiritual/Psychic Medium Male TV Personality, Best National Spirit Medium Male, and Best International Paranormal TV Program winner: Dead Famous.

When not on tour speaking, Chris likes to spend his time with friends and discuss spiritually in various cultures, new ideas in physics, and various forms of spiritual communication around the world. He also loves working out, Yoga, playing rock band on the drums, going to movies, concerts and live comedy. He is currently working with engineers and developers to create the next "advanced" technology to communicate with ghosts and owns and operates an online ghost equipment store called GhostOutlet.com since 2007. He has a monthly podcast "Spirit Talk" from his website ChristopherFleming.com and spends appropriate time consulting families, individuals and children on paranormal issues and trauma. Chris is working on his first book this year and a movie treatment based on one of his terrifying experiences.

Entertaining and informative his multimedia lecture runs approximately 90 minutes, with 30 minutes for questions and answers, followed by a live ghost hunts that runs approximately 1-2 hours.
