The Cat's Pajamas is the barbershop quartet your mother forgot to warn you about. In other words, they're an a cappella group, and they pride themselves on "their explosive singing talents and their ability to engage each audience member during their dynamic, high-energy, humorous, and interactive performances." Complete with two new and highly distinguished members -- Marcus Terrell of American Idol fame and Chris Chatham, magna cum laude graduate of the Berklee College of Music -- The Cat's Pajamas is now better than ever. Book this act today for a charming and talented young group of singers that's sure to bring a smile to every face in the crowd.
